4. Acceptance of Minutes

Acceptance of minutes made by Jay Tarvin, seconded by Alina Vasilenko.

5. Public Forum

Fransico from Mecha Club introduced themselves to ASG.

6. Reports

Kaylee reports that the Safety Council will meet next week and that the art club plans to merge with the Zine club in hopes of attracting new members.

7. Discussion Items

1. Spring Semester Senator and P-Cab Applications

Victoria Miller is worried about the size of the ASG council. Created a slideshow with Cornor and Ramiah about ASG to share in classes.

Jay will speak with his Black Studies class tomorrow morning about ASG.

Omar will speak with his class next Wednesday about ASG.

Kaylee appreciated Victoria Miller's presentation for ASG that was presented in Fall 2024.

2. Grows and Glos – AS Leadership Retreat

Jay thought the activities at the Leadership Retreat were helpful for bonding and aided student leaders to be more comfortable with one another. Jay enjoyed sharing information about each other as an ice breaker.

Kaylee liked the flow of the event through activities, formal speeches, and activities to end the day.

Vicky G enjoyed the speakers who were present.

3. Scholarships

Applications for ASG scholarships are due February 17th. ASG needs readers to look through said applications. Currently, all ASG members have signed up to review one sector of applications.

8. Action Items

9. Roundtable

Jay hopes more senators join ASG and notes that the ASG room feels empty.

Victoria explains Grad Fest and the activities that go on at this event.

Kaylee and Jay offer to make a bill for Grad Fest and help run the event.

Jahnae reminds ASG that the treasurer position is still open and a paid position.

Jay expresses interest in treasurer position.

10. Adjournment

Clara Cady Dreher adjourned the meeting at 1:21 p.m.
